HELPING PHYSIOTHERAPY MAKE A DIFFERENCE

The Private Physiotherapy Educational Foundation (PPEF) are a charity that makes substantial investments in physiotherapy education and research. It has several million pounds at its disposal and is keen to recruit a dynamic trustee to help the charity achieve its objectives. In particular, to increase the number and quality of awards.

Why Join Us?

- Make a Difference: Be part of a charity that funds impactful projects, improving knowledge and patient care in physiotherapy.
- Expand Your Network: Collaborate with a dedicated group of Trustees and build connections in the physiotherapy and charity sectors.
- Develop Your Skills: Gain valuable experience in governance, strategic decision-making, and charity operations.
- Flexibility: Meetings are primarily online, with one or two in-person sessions each year (usually in London).
- Rewarding Contribution: While voluntary, this role offers the satisfaction of giving back to the profession, with travel expenses covered.

What are looking for someone who:

- is dynamic and networked
- has excellent insight into the likely future requirements of physiotherapists and the profession (particularly the opportunities that technology can bring to productivity, patient outcomes and experience)
- can help raise the profile of PPEF amongst potential applicants
- understands the 7 principles of the Charity Governance Code
